

Meeting of the Tenured Faculty of the English Department May 11, 2006

Unanimous approval of March Tenured Minutes .

Discussion of Ads for hire in fall

The members agreed to request to post two ads and then take the most appropriate candidate whether it be a literature candidate or a writing candidate. The ad for Lit will focus on any two periods of English lit before 1900 (with the exception of medieval), and the writing candidate must be able to teach poetry in the creative writing concentration. And should be able to teach one other creative genre.

Discussion of possible concentration in Film Study.

Interested faculty members will work on course proposal over the summer.

Meeting adjourned.
