

Annual College of Arts and Sciences 2019 Excellence in Advising Award

Deadline for Nominations and Complete Packets: April 12, 2019

Please email nominations to Diane Riehlmann – riehlman@loyno.edu

Nominations are requested from individual students, alumni, faculty members, student organizations and department chairs/unit leaders for the Annual College of Arts and Sciences Excellence in Advising Award. This award is granted to faculty who are identified by students and colleagues as especially committed to the advising of students. This award also recognizes the importance and value of the advising process at Loyola. It is granted to someone who has established a reputation and record of clear distinction to serving the needs of students. All current CAS full-time faculty members are eligible for nomination, with the exception of the faculty members on the CAS Awards Committee and faculty members who have previously received this award.

The award will be presented at the CAS Honors Convocation, May 10, 2019. The winner will be notified by April 26, 2019. Winner will receive $1,000.

NOMINATION/AWARD CRITERIA:

1. Required material for each category shall include:
 - a. Curriculum Vitae (CV)
 2. Optional materials
 - a. One letter of support from the principle nominator
 - b. One letter from the nominee explaining qualifications for the award
 - c. One letter of support from a colleague (may have multiple signers)
 - d. One letter of support from a student (may have multiple signers)
 3. Letters of support shall be no longer than 250 words.
 4. In selecting winners, the committee will give priority to faculty achievements of the last three years.
- No members of the Faculty Excellence Award Committee may nominate or write letters of support
 - Additional materials or letters will not be considered

Faculty members serving on the Faculty Excellence Awards Committee in Advising are Dr. Sarah Allison, Dr. Christine Heinecke, Dr. Danielle Slakoff, Dr. Jaita Talukdar, Dr. Leonard Kahn, Dr. Enrique Varela, and two DSAC representatives.

Due April 12, 2018 by email to riehlman@loyno.edu