

Honors Curriculum Updated with Respects to the Loyola Core

Honors students must take a minimum of 19 credits in H-level courses. They are, of course, encouraged to take more.

Honors Core Requirements - 7 Credit Hours

Honors Core Section	Course Number & Name	Credit Hours
Honors First Year Interdisciplinary Humanities Seminar	H121 Name varies by course	3 crs.
Ignatian Colloquium	HONS-H193	1 cr.
Social Justice Seminar	H396 Name varies by course	3 crs.
Honors Ethics	H215 Name varies by course	Checkoff *

Honors Seminar Requirements - minimum 12 Credit Hours

Students will select from a variety of courses that satisfy a specific Honors Seminar requirement. All Honors Seminar eligible courses are usually indicated by the number H295, though there are slight variations. It is imperative that a student meet with the UHP during advising period to determine what course will go toward what requirement.

Honors Seminar Section	Credit Hours
Philosophy	3 crs.
Religious Studies	3 crs.
History	3 crs.
Literature	3 crs.
Creative Arts and Cultures	3 crs. **
Mathematics	0-3 crs. ***
Natural Science	0-3 crs. ***

Honors Thesis Track - 3 Credit Hours

Honors Requirements in the Major	Course Number & Name	Credit Hours
Thesis	HONS H491 or Department equivalent	3 crs. ****

 The Honors Ethics requirement may be satisfied with an ethics course in the major. If not, an H215 course must be used to fulfill at least one Honors Disciplinary Requirement.*

 The Creative Arts and Cultures requirement may be satisfied with either an H295 seminar or with credits in performance or practice-based arts courses (three credits in ballet or painting, for example). The latter option must be approved by the UHP prior to the student taking the course.*

* Requirements for Mathematics and Natural Science may be fulfilled by an A-level course in the major or with approved AP credit. Students who are required to take A-level Mathematics and/or Natural Science courses in their major are not required to take an additional Honors Seminar.*

 Depending on a student's major, the total number of credit hours for thesis work may vary. Credit hours, depending on specific degree requirements, may be taken in the major or in Honors.*